

Lydia's Guild 2019 Holiday Craft Show

Application Instructions

The following items MUST be submitted by crafters to be considered for the 2019 show:

- Completed Application – All Fields Required
- Application Fee (non-refundable) and Show Registration Check
- Five Pictures of your Work and One Picture of your Display
 - Please email digital images at time of application

Additional Instructions and Guidelines

- Name for Final Check: This is the name to which the check for your final sales will be written, so please be sure this is a name that your bank will accept for deposit (such as personal name versus company name).
- Crafter Code: Please select a 3 to 5 character code that will be used on each price tag to identify your items at the register. Alphabetic characters, such as your initials, are preferred. Please do not price any items until your code is accepted, as we reserve the right to change your code if it is too similar to another participant.
- Phone Numbers: Please provide a telephone number to reach you at quickly should we have customers with questions for you during the show.
- Work Shifts: There are no work shifts required for crafters of the 2019 show. If you are interested in working a shift at an hourly wage, please indicate as such.
- Pictures: Please email your pictures to: lydiasguildcraftshow@gmail.com. Please send high resolution images as they may be selected for advertising campaigns.
- Post Cards: We appreciate the assistance of our crafters in distribution of our show post cards. Please indicate how many cards you can use at your fall shows, place of business, etc. Minimum of 25, maximum of 200; please contact if us if you need more.
- Description of Your Work: Please provide specific details of what you would like to jury into the show. If you are accepted, you will only be allowed to bring described items to the show—we will ask you to remove any additional items that were not properly juried.
- Jewelry and scarves are limited to those artists who are jurying for those items exclusively. They cannot included in addition to other items amongst your work.
